Message from President Steven Shirley

The 2020-21 academic year is now in the books, and it was a most unique year within the storied history of Minot State University. As with virtually every part of society, COVID-19 disrupted many of our normal routines and aspects across campus. Despite the challenges, we had another terrific year.

COVID-19 forced us to adapt and re-think several procedures and educational delivery models; the results have led to some exciting changes that will certainly have a lasting impact for future MSU students. We transformed approximately 100 classrooms across campus with new technology upgrades including cameras, monitors, speakers, microphones, and presentation software. These changes enabled more flexible delivery options in the classroom helping ensure pandemic safety protocols. And, as importantly, these updates will ensure the latest classroom technology is available for our students and professors for years to come.

Beyond COVID-19 impacts, we moved forward with the multi-million-dollar renovation to the MSU Summer Theatre Amphitheater – phase one of the project has been completed, and phase two will commence at the end of this summer’s theatrical season. When complete, MSU will have one of the finest outdoor performing spaces in the upper Midwest. Significant investments were also made in our nursing department to further enhance our simulation labs and equipment. In athletics, we announced the addition of a new program as MSU will become the first public university in North Dakota to field a women’s wrestling team. This sport was recently sanctioned by the ND High School Activities Association and is one of the fastest growing sports in collegiate athletics. MSU recently partnered with Magic City Day Care to bring daycare services to campus, utilizing unused space in a portion of a former residence hall. So, while it was a unique year with COVID-19, we still launched and fulfilled a number of important initiatives.

Fundraising at MSU experienced a record level this year, and these accomplishments are simply not possible without your kindness and generosity! As you will see in the following pages, MSU enjoyed a record year of fundraising – significantly surpassing the previous single-year high. We also added two dozen new endowed scholarships, had our most successful Giving Day with over a quarter million dollars raised in just 24 hours, and reached a record participation level of support from MSU faculty and staff. The MSU Development Foundation’s asset base is now approximately $51 million, more than double where it stood just six years ago.

None of these milestones are possible without your tremendous support. You are providing scholarships so MSU students have the resources to pursue their academic dreams. Additionally, the needs across campus for facilities, academic programming, athletic and artistic endeavors, and student services remain, and we need to continue investing in our University to ensure its long-term prominence within North Dakota’s educational landscape. Please know your gifts and support are doing just that, while helping MSU fulfill its mission to our students and the broader community. THANK YOU!

On a final note, we lost a titan in the MSU family this last year with the passing of long-time faculty member Dr. Doris Slaaten. Doris was a tireless champion for MSU and our students, and her fingerprints can be found across the MSU campus and in the broader Minot community. She served on multiple MSU boards and contributed mightily over many years to supporting our students, faculty, and staff. Doris will be missed by many throughout the MSU family.

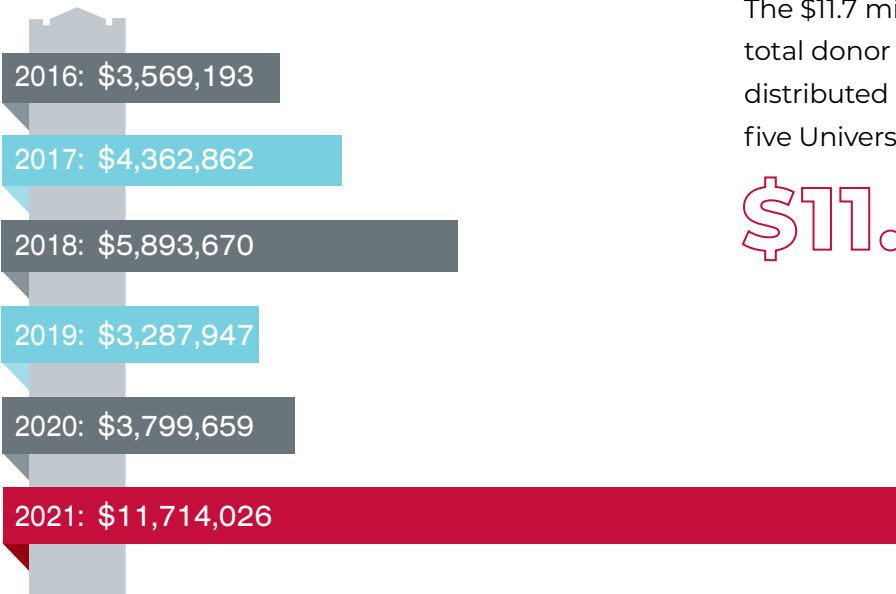

We are looking forward to getting back to a more “normal” year as students return this fall, and on behalf of everyone at MSU, a big word of THANKS for your continued support of Minot State University and our students. ■

Thank you and as always, GO BEAVERS!

CREATING A NAMED SCHOLARSHIP

through the Minot State University Development

Foundation assists students and leaves a legacy at Minot State University. It is also a meaningful way to honor family and friends.

Establishing a scholarship

THE FIRST STEP IN ESTABLISHING A SCHOLARSHIP is to determine whether you would like to establish an endowed scholarship or an annual scholarship:

ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIPS

Endowed scholarship funds are designed to be permanent and perpetual and can be created with gifts totaling a minimum amount of $10,000 contributed in full at the outset or with an initial commitment that is added to over time until the endowment level of $10,000 is reached. The principal of the fund is invested to produce income, and an annual award is made to a student(s). The principal remains untouched so the endowment can last into perpetuity.

ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIPS

Annual scholarships can be established with an outright gift of any amount. Unlike an endowed scholarship, an annual scholarship is not a permanent fund and is awarded only as long as you (or others) choose to contribute to the fund.

As a scholarship donor, you choose the name of the scholarship as well as the criteria. The Development Foundation staff is available to help you create the criteria for your scholarship. Endowed and annual scholarships at Minot State are awarded to deserving students based upon area of interest, geographical origin, leadership potential, merit, financial need, academic achievement, or other criteria.

Typically, a selection committee carefully reviews the scholarship applications submitted by students and selects the most deserving recipient(s) based on the donor-established criteria.

Contributors of a scholarship fund are notified annually when the scholarship recipient(s) has been selected and are informed of the name, as well as the amount of the award. Recipients often write a thank you note to the donor, and in some cases the recipient(s) and donor are able to meet

For more information on establishing a scholarship, please contact the Development Foundation at 701-858-3890 or 1-800-777-0750 ext. 3890. ■

Dockter initially earned a one-year rural teaching certificate. He returned after a year for a two-year certificate, taught two years in Parshall, and then finished his bachelor's degree in 1957.

The decision to enter the workforce between school was out of financial necessity, shaping the family's decisions even to present day. The Dockters established the Duane D. and Lois M. Dockter Scholarship Endowment at Minot State to help offset the costs for future education majors.

"We are impressed with the direction Minot State is going and wanted to help people who really couldn't afford to go to college," Duane said. "It's a good investment to make with a good return. We hope students do well with the scholarship, go on in their careers, and eventually do the same.

"My parents didn't have the money to send us to school, but I had enough saved up to go (for the certificate), then I worked and went back, taught in Parshall to save up enough to get the opportunity to go back again. I couldn't have done it any other way without a bunch of debt."

They instilled a sense of saving early on with their children.

"We started early with our kids, in junior high, they had their savings accounts," he said. "For college, they would be responsible for one quarter and we would help with the other two."

Both Duane and Lois are lifelong educators, having taught in the Great Falls, Montana school system. Lois earned degrees from Northern Montana and Colorado State before starting her teaching career in Libby, Montana. She recalls a much different school setting.

"My dad wanted me to go to school," she said. "For women, it was mostly teachers and secretary jobs and I couldn't do shorthand very well so I decided to teach. Schools were quite different. I taught in a small school, but I had to also take care of the furnace."

The couple met while teaching in Great Falls and continue to live there, splitting time between Montana and Apache Junction, Arizona. After retiring from teaching in 1993, they continued to manage rental properties in Great Falls, involving the children in the family business, until fully retiring.

"We bought our first duplex in 1963 and instead of giving a down payment, we did a lot of work — painting, kitchen cupboards, wooden floors, working on the yard," Duane said. "That's how we got started. At one time, we had 54 units. It helped us retire in a good situation." ■

COVID-19 Year in Review

Throughout the academic year, while COVID-19 changed the lives of each student, faculty, and staff member, Minot State continued its mission of delivering high-quality, hands-on education. The University expanded and upgraded technology to deliver a HyFlex classroom model, limited the capacity in various rooms and events, adjusted itineraries, added testing events and vaccination clinics, and saw the return of athletic events and the annual commencement ceremony. Throughout the academic year, MSU reported a total of 563 positive cases among students and 94 faculty and staff positive cases.

A COVID-19 recap follows on the bottom of pages 8 – 35.

MINOT STATE'S LOCATION IS WHAT INITIALLY brought Richard '66 and Stephanie (Sabol) '68 Strom to campus for their collegiate careers.

"I was the first in my family to earn a college degree and money was tight. I needed to live in Minot," Stephanie said. "I wanted to be an English teacher so Minot State was a perfect fit. Dick's family farmed in Columbus and proximity to home was important to him and his family also."

Stephanie wasn't on campus long when she and Richard met.

"Dick and I met at MSU at a Mu Sigma Tau frat party when I was a freshman and he was a junior," the Tri Sigma sorority member said. "We have been married for 53 years."

As the couple reached their retirement years, they mutually agreed to increase their charitable giving. Learning about the North Dakota Higher Education Challenge Grant Fund match prompted them to include their alma mater in those plans.

"Giving to Minot State not only gave us the opportunity to thank the institution that gave us solid foundations for our future endeavors but enabled us to help students with theirs through the scholarships we endowed," said Stephanie.

The Old Main Society members have established scholarships in a nod to their own degrees in English education and business administration, as well as the Ruth Knudson Strom and Clyde Strom Future Teachers Academic Scholarship.

"Ruth and Clyde Strom are Dick's parents," she said. "Ruth graduated from Minot State Teachers College back in the day when a teacher earned her degree in two years. The scholarship was our way of honoring Dick's parents."

Following graduation, the Stroms married and landed in Minneapolis where Richard worked in accounting and Stephanie taught junior and high school English in Minnetonka. As Richard entered the home building and land development arena as a controller, general manager, and regional president, the family's opportunities grew.

"We lived in amazing cities and did a great deal of traveling with our three daughters in America and Europe," said Stephanie. "MSU helped develop our adventurous spirit and the desire to keep learning and making new friends. We have fond memories of our academic lives, including our fabulous professors and our social lives which provided us with treasured, lifelong friends. Minot is the sort of town whose residents wholeheartedly support the school and its students.

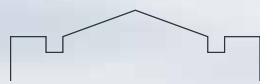

"We are blessed to be able to help our University and students with the scholarships we have established." ■

Alumni and friends continue to provide financial assistance through annual donations for Minot State students and the University. These contributions are vital for a solid future for MSU. Cash donations, endowments, gifts of property, bequests, annuities, and trusts are vehicles to match the dreams of our donors with the needs of our students. Gifts can be made conveniently at MinotStateU.edu/Give or by contacting the Development Foundation at 701-858-4243 or 800-777-0750.

MUSIC IS A SOLID PILLAR IN THE JERMIASON FAMILY.

John '91 and Ann (Gebhardt) '82 first met at the Minot Symphony Orchestra, where he has been principal violist for 38 years and she has played the flute and piccolo for nearly four decades.

Following in their footsteps, their twin sons, Alan and Matthew, also pursued degrees in music, receiving their music education degrees from Minot State along with daughter-in-law Alyssa (Tonneson) in 2016.

"Music is such an integral part of our lives so we thought this was a perfect scholarship to fund for both of us, that we would dedicate it to students who are music majors at the University," said John regarding their endowment.

"Research shows music in education is important for brain development," added Ann. "Music should really be a priority, right next to reading, writing, and math — all the arts should be."

That strong belief in the performing arts is evident in addition to their commitment to the Minot Symphony Orchestra. Ann retired in 2020 after serving as a music teacher for 38 years, has been a member of the Minot City Band for 40 years, and is currently serving as the band's president. John, meanwhile, is president of the International Artist Series.

Their involvement in the music scene often finds them at Minot State's Ann Nicole Nelson Hall.

"One thing I notice about the MSU music students when we come here, there's usually a whole crew of them sitting around in the backstage area," John said. "And they study together, work together, and they're a close-knit group because of the size of this University.

"The professors on staff right now are providing the tools for students to go out and be successful in a multiplicity of careers that are now available in music."

"It's a really good program and there's a lot of really talented people that come out of here," Ann said. "I was able to work with a few Minot State grads, even with (son) Alan, and the graduates do a really good job."

Witnessing the strength of the music program is one reason the Jermiasons believe in giving back to Minot State. The experiences they and their family had within the University is another.

John's mother, Evelyn (O'Grady) Jermiason, received her teaching degree from the University in 1944. Ann's mother, Jeanette (Thompson) Gebhardt, and several of her uncles attended Minot State, too.

"This is our alma mater," said John. "For us, for our kids, for our family." ■

Beaver Boosters

TRAVIS AND LEAH (ARMSTRONG) HEDBERG BELIEVE IN SUPPORTING THEIR LOCAL COMMUNITY.

When the couple made the decision to support an athletic department, they turned to Minot State's Beaver Boosters.

"I was on the verge of becoming a Teammaker at NDSU (North Dakota State), but it didn't make sense to send my money to Fargo when we lived here," said Travis, who earned his degree at NDSU in plant science. "I hadn't really thought about being a booster, but after talking with Brock (Brock Weppeler, assistant AD for development) and seeing Minot State do a better job of recruiting locally, we felt it was a good place to donate."

Part of that is MSU wrestling and its involvement in Dakota Rattlers youth wrestling. Head coach Evan Forde and his team, including the couple's nephew Kelby Armstrong, a sophomore for the Beavers, help with the Dakota Rattlers, where two of the Hedberg's three boys participate.

"Evan does a nice job helping with that program," Travis said.

With three young boys, having successful athletic programs in Minot beyond just the wrestling program was important.

"It would be great if the boys can see a good product here and then want to stay home and play ball here," Travis said. "The emphasis isn't all on athletics, but it is certainly something we are interested in and having a successful athletic program gives our kids something to do."

Leah, who earned her degree in speech pathology in 2006, knew the quality of the academic side of the University and felt athletics was making positive strides on and off the field.

"You can see the positives," she said. "The facilities are amazing, and they are doing a better job of getting into the community. I think it is important to keep things in Minot, keep local kids here, and support them."

"I always felt Minot State was a great option for me to finish my degree, they prepared me pretty well for my career. That can be challenging because my profession is so hands on, but MSU does a nice job with clinics. I've had some current students who have done internships with me and those types of relationships are important."

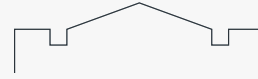

The Hedbergs hope their contribution can help Minot State grow as an athletic department and as a University.

"I know with COVID-19 there wasn't a lot of revenue generated from sporting events, so we felt it was a good time to start and help pick up the slack," Travis said. "We want to help the University grow. It's a nice campus and the facilities are a good draw. I know it is only a drop in the bucket, but we hope these scholarships can help build the program." ■

Minot State faculty and staff

WHEN KRISTI (SCHAEFER) BERG '95/'00 began teaching at Minot State, she saw the importance of giving to the University.

"As a student, I didn't utilize financial aid or scholarships so I didn't get the concept of how important the gifts are the University receives from its donors," she said. "When I started working here, I started having conversations with students and learning about their financial burdens and how hopeful they were when it came to scholarship selection times, and I wanted to do something and make a difference by contributing."

The Minot native began donating piecemeal to different areas on campus and has now been giving to MSU for 15 consecutive years, including the 2018 creation of the Schaefer Berg Scholarship Endowment available for College of Business students.

"I see the direct impact $500 makes on the life of a student from being in the classroom, that is why I give. I've been to the scholarship banquets where I've seen them receive their awards, how grateful they are, and how meaningful that is. We've had those conversations in class," she said. "We have a wealth of opportunities for our students thanks to our donors."

Berg sees the impact of all donation sizes, which was last evident during the University's third annual Giving Day in April 2021. Several students in her honors class were in friendly competition with one another, hoping to raise the most for their sports team.

"I probably would have never donated to football and soccer and basketball, but because they were my students, we had that connection and interaction so it made sense to give," she said. "I gave $10 to each team, so not a lot, but they were in class watching their numbers go up and were so excited. And because donations could be made in small amounts, I think the students felt more comfortable and empowered asking faculty and friends to contribute as well."

In addition to giving through her role as a College of Business professor, Berg is also serving on the Alumni Association Board of Directors, a role she's held for a decade.

"People are so generous and it is so meaningful. It doesn't have to be a ton; a little goes a long way," she said. "When we give back and believe in this institution, it comes from within and has such a large impact." ■

University.
We feel

TALMADGE "TIM" AND LYNN (CUNDIFF) SMITH '85 HAVE CONTRASTING MEMORIES ABOUT THEIR TIME at Minot State.

"My favorite part about attending Minot State was being involved in all the musical activities, performing in the pit orchestra for summer musicals and operas, and playing in the brass band. I think that was just amazing," Lynn said, who played French horn as her major instrument. "I got to experience many things and see people's different talents, I enjoyed taking part in all the activities Minot State offered."

"My experience was significantly different," Tim said. "I did a large percentage of my education in the evening because I was working full time. I appreciate that was available. It was wide and varied, and it gave me the opportunity to study accounting, computer science, math, and all the other great courses offered at night."

Tim was employed at SRT Communications while receiving his education, a company he stayed at for 31 years. Today, he works virtually for Broadcom Inc., a global technology company, while Lynn can be found in the purchasing office at Northrup Grumman in New Town. She taught at Deering Public School until it closed.

"I enjoyed teaching," Lynn said. "It was a great time."

The experiences created at Minot State inspired the Smiths to create two endowments, the Tim L. and Lynn M. Smith Scholarship Endowment, specifically for French horn, oboe, or bassoon students, and the Tim L. and Lynn M. Smith Faculty Chair.

"It's a local university that has done very well with the community, and it has done very well in education," said Tim. "The idea is to make sure not only that individual students have an opportunity to receive a scholarship but that you also have professionals that can teach. From our perspective, we wanted to make sure it was funded on both sides."

Lynn saw the importance of the endowments first as a student and later as a teacher.

"I went into the music education program and then eventually teacher education. Being part of the orchestra and all the various bands, I noticed a need for scholarships for French horn players in particular, because they aren't usually very well represented," she said. "And, being in the teaching profession, I thought it was very important to contribute that way as well."

"We both attended this University," said Tim. "We feel giving back is just the right thing to do." ■
